It doesn't get
Any lower than this
Lonely, abandoned and helpless
How could I feel
Any worse than now
Is it too late to escape
Or get out somehow
Won't You come and rain down
Won't You come and rain down
In the darkest room
There's a light on for you
If you're too weak to move
He's your strength
When your nights turn cold
And you think nobody knows
It's Jesus that understands
I'm glad to see
You're not leaving me
Empty, rejected and hurting
And I know
That it's better now
You mend my broken heart
When I am broken down
Won't You come and rain down
Won't You come and rain down
Won't You come
And rain down on me Jesus
On me Jesus
