I know that words will not do
They won't do justice to the indescribable you
My heart is captivated you're all I need
This feeling haunts me
I know it's real

I wonder how this could be
Our love is all we will need
It keeps getting stronger
And it will last longer
Cause I know that we're meant to be

You are everything that I'm not
Your perfections drown out everything that I've got
These eyes have never seen something so divine
Could I be dreaming
I know that I'm alive

I wonder how this could be
Our love is all we will need
It keeps getting stronger
And it will last longer
Cause I know that we're meant to be

With everything I am I give myself to be
I can not comprehend your love for me

I wonder how this could be
Our love is all we will need
It keeps getting stronger
And it will last longer
Cause I know that we're meant to be
