

A Road Less Traveled "Save Me"

After all I've been through, cancer eats at my skin Ever since the day I defied You, I feel like I have been lied to
Can I confide in You, and believe in things unseen
Can I breathe you in, Can I breathe You in, Can I breathe You in

Can You save me from this pain Im feelin
Embrace me after where I've been
Did You mistake me for somebody else
And take me in with You again

Look at these scars its left
My veins are filled with the poison
This is the path that I've chosen
Can I confide in You
And believe in things unseen
Can I breathe you in, Can I breathe You in, Can I breathe You in

Can You save me from this pain Im feelin
Embrace me after where I've been
Did You mistake me for somebody else
And take me in with You again

Can You save me from this pain Im feelin
Embrace me after where I've been
Did You mistake me for somebody else
And take me in with You again
