The sky it is so black and heavier tonight
I feel it in my soul and there's no end in sight

The chains are here to stay
The shackles bind me up I've tried to break away
But there's no freedom here for me
Can you see that

Underneath I'm shattered fix my heart it's broken
Bring me back to life cause all I knew is gone
I am going under please don't let me waste away

Now I'm crying out for you to liberate
My heart from this abyss and take it all away
Can you see that

Underneath I'm shattered fix my heart it's broken
Bring me back to life cause all I knew is gone
I am going under please don't let me waste away

Can you take away the pain that's taken my life
Oh can you take away the pain that's taken my life

Underneath I'm shattered fix my heart it's broken
Bring me back to life cause all I knew is gone
I am going under please don't let me waste away
