Lately I've been thinking about the past and how you used to love me
And I'm wondering if you still love me today?
All I'm saying is...

If I were standing in the same place as yesterday,
Would you still love me the same way?
If I were standing in the same place as yesterday,
I'd figure it out

I know I've changed and so have you in so many ways
But why can't we stand in the same place?
All I'm saying is...

If I were standing in the same place as yesterday,
Would you still love me the same way?
If I were standing in the same place as yesterday,
I'd figure it out

Piano

Can we stand in the same place as yesterday?
Can you love me the same way?
I need to know sooner or later so I can move on with my life
Why are you taking so long baby -- to figure out your life?

If I were standing in the same place as yesterday,
Would you still love me the same way?
If I were standing in the same place as yesterday,

Can we figure it out?
I've got to figure it out
