"Some Impressions From The Kingdom Of Plenitude"

And as the Magic flowed into me I felt eternal eternal in Heart, eternal in Soul It inspired me and guided me

It separated me from my person from that ignorant being that only sees one path as false as his reason

Suicide was my death cause and memory of my person remained there in some Flower, in some Heart I knew the Kingdoms of Darkness of Happiness and Plenitude and of each of these I learned what I now preach from my throne:

- Nothing material... will be real for me
- Never will any being... be superior to me
- Nobody will be landlord... of my own energy

- No field of attraction... will possess my Soul
- I'll fight against fanaticism... with hate and without pity
- The character of my person... shall nevermore exist
- My hate towards humanity... shall forever prevail
- My greatest wish shall be... to have existed never

For my body of flesh doesn't exist now and no longer depends upon its life Now indeed, I know Plenitude and there I'll stay For my Soul is strong now and depends not upon the Heart Now indeed, I'll remain in Ingaravidness for all Eternity
Free, free from all Free, free forever
