I'm gonna take back what is mine
I'm gonna take back every dime
I'm no longer gonna do your time
Ye, I'm gonna take back what's my mine

You drug me through the mud
You never showed me any love
You mocked and tormented me
You would not set me free

If I had every dime for you cruelty
I would be rich
You kept me in your sorry pit
And knocked me in hell's ditch

I'm gonna take back what is mine
I'm gonna take back every dime
I'm no longer gonna do your time
Yes, I'm gonna take back what is mine
