Summer evenings
The Moon takes its place
Summer evenings
Darling I miss your face
The thought of you in my mind
Just won't go away
Though you're far, and I'm here
Our love won't disappear
Oh no, won't disappear

Darling, darling where are you?
My hearts been torn in two
I don't know what to do
In this summer,
In this summer
Without You

Summer mornings
The sun in my face
Summer mornings
I still miss you babe
When you're coming?
I don't know
The tears just keep on fallin'
Just keep on fallin'.

Darling, darling where are you?
My hearts been torn in two
I don't know what to do
In this summer,
In this summer
Without You

On the beach,
Holding hands,
Is what I dreamt to do
On the beach
Makin' love
Oh I wish that was true
The summers ending
There's still no you
Im wonderin'

What can I do?
What can I do?

Darling, darling where are you?
My hearts been torn in two
I don't know what to do
In this summer,
In this summer
Without You

Darling, darling where are you?
My hearts been torn in two
I don't know what to do
In this summer,
In this summer
Without you, oh oh,
Without you!

Your soft kiss, your stunning smile
Are what I've been dreaming of Those beautiful lips, those gorgeous eyes
They get me hypnotized
You're my shining star
Oh yes you are
You make my life complete
Oh oh so complete

Darling, darling where are you?
My hearts been torn in two
I don't know what to do
In this summer,
In this summer
Without you, oh oh,
Without you!
