he page's turned, a new chapter's just begun
At the crossroads, alone I don't know where to run
My world's on hold, fear keeps me looking back Doubt each turn, belief is what I lack

Heaven, heaven let me know
Heaven let me know, if it's what I'm looking for Heaven let me know, if it's what I'm waiting for

Time again, I've been scared to call on you
I'll trust myself, when there's so little I can do
If faith's a girl, I pray that she'd be kind
When I hold her hand, Lord ask her not to mind

Heaven, heaven let me know
Heaven let me know, if it's what I'm looking for Heaven let me know, if it's what I'm waiting for

Here we go, I'm letting go, it's never been so Clear to me, now I see, the fear is gone tonight

Heaven, heaven let me know
Heaven let me know, if it's what I'm looking for Heaven let me know, if it's what I'm waiting for
