v1:

i wish you could,
see me now,
i've gone on...long enough with all these doubts, that it's never gonna work out, i wish you...could see me smile, it's been a while since i've cracked a joke, and now i'm back on time, a-yea,

c:

and it's been years,
and i'm still crying, choked up tears in all my lies, i'll face my fears but then im trying,
to go back, to what we had,
and im not down with that,

v2:

through all these years,
it was the same thing, i always thought...we were ment to be,
now going back...i'm looking down, at all the things i dont approve of,
it's like you weren't around, a-yea,

(chorus)

so move on,
cuz im not going back,
back to what we had,
it's in the past,

(chorus x2)
