Get off the train, your head explodes
Iâ€™m so glad I came to see this
Put up your hair like a horror show
Youâ€™re afraid that no one would notice

Cover your tracks with a cardigan
I bet youâ€™d make a fine assassin
We need to shake and make amends

And talk about how time never passes

So tell me now, how did the reunion go?
Wasnâ€™t she a sight to witness?
Skinny walking all up and down the road
I heard that sheâ€™s a terrible waitress

Chanel chanel, coming off of my lapel
