"In Shaire"

You're hunting me
In the night in your fantasy
It's the sign of the gypsy queen
Endless dream
You're hunting me
I feel the need
I never felt love so deep
Love is so dangerous, mysterious
I try to win, baby
Oh, in Shaire
You won't have my love for free
You are selling frozen tears
A journey to my heart and fears in Shaire
In Shaire you will play a game with me
You are stealing memories
My heartbeat is a loving beat in Shaire
In Shaire you try
Breaking the rules make white doves cry
In Shaire I know
All your love will come and go
When I say you will take all my feelings away
In Shaire
You're hunting me
Winning games of the night I see
Loving you such is such a thrill
You make me feel
You're hunting me
You're holding me
I'm lost in a lonely sea
And behind your painted smile
You're a child
Try to win, baby
