Dark souls surrounding me with their pale eyes they have seen right into my inner thinking Incubus pass by me
I now, by down in total dusk None is visible but their shades covered by no-season leaves what am I doing here anyway It doesn't matter just want to take her that one in dark gloom please fuck and rape girl

A pale silhouet approaches my body all my powers draged out of me now the ego is gaining darkness what wilt this do with I I can see the coulour of their eyes now One is white the others total black over my acts I have no control anymore they are forcing me, Incubus.
