In my dream I saw you touch my heart
All at once I was still
A peace within me that could not compare to
All I'd known and all I'd seen
Your touch gave me life
And now I sing

Glory to God forever
I'll praise you now and ever
Your love floods my thirsty soul
All majesty and power
Are yours Almighty Father
Great is your Holy name

I've been thinking of you
In my thoughts I heard you call my name
I felt a stirring within
A new beginning and a new found passion
It made me call out your name
With a desire to see all men saved

Holy
Is the Lord God Almighty

You reign
You reign over the earth
