Have you seen bruce richard reynolds? he's a man we'd like to find they say the great train robbery he was the mastermind and his firm they pulled the greatest turn the world has ever known 2 million quid was stolen the firm swid for parts unknown

(chorus)

have you seen bruce richard reynolds? he's a man we must detain he's wanted for the robbery of the glasgow/Euston train age 32, height six foot one, eyes gray, his hair is brown apprehend bruce richard reynolds he is wanted by the crown

(verse 2)

Well reynolds and some people got together as a firm while doin' bird and wearin scrubs he heard about a turn Rob a train but it needed brains so reynolds scratched his head
"when i done my bird then rob that train" thats what he said well reynolds left his prison cell he started on his scheme he contacted ole' Gordon 'G' and charlie wilson's team they came to an agreement and a partnership was made by summer 63' the scene was set for reynold's raid yea'

the night of august 8th y'know the rig went like a dream on-hundred an' twenty meal-bags full of money was stolen by the team but someone left his finger prints and the guys were soon on charge but they only caught the muscle cause' the brains were still at large

a good one came to news and mister reynolds made a vow
"well no-one grassed on me" he said "i cant desert em' now"
"the iron bars and prison walls they do not bother me"
"i robbed the mails, so ill rob the jails and set my whole firm free"
by august 64 ol' charlie wilson left his cell by late in 65 brought big ol' annie olse aswell (verse6)
He's a mastermind you know just walking through the walls of jails and lettin' his firm go
