The night is yours, the night is mine
I beg you, baby, take your time
It's like paradise
See your magic eyes
Feel the need in me

The night is yours, the night is mine
I beg you, baby, take your time
Heaven in your eyes
Takes me to the sky
I'm in love with you

Love takes time, it's hard to find that's true
Not a game you play, a night or two
Take my heart, let's make it real tonight
We'll be dancin' to the pale moonlight

Your dreams are real today
And now you gonna stay

The night is yours, the night is mine
I beg you, baby, take your time
It's like paradise
See your magic eyes
Feel the need in me

The night is yours, the night is mine
I beg you, baby, take your time
Heaven in your eyes
Takes me to the sky
I'm in love with you

I will try to make your dreams come true
Trust me baby, nothing else will do
There's no need for you to be so cool
Love takes time just like the golden rule

Your dreams are real today
And now they're gonna stay

The night is yours, the night is mine
I beg you, baby, take your time

It's like paradise
See your magic eyes
Feel the need in me

The night is yours, the night is mine
I beg you, baby, take your time
Heaven in your eyes
Takes me to the sky
I'm in love with you

Girl, when I see your smile
Imaginations running wild
Love makes me feel all right
Help me through the night

Sometimes you're weak
Sometimes you're wild
You're a woman, you're a child
Love makes me feel all right, tonight

The night is yours, the night is mine
I beg you, baby, take your time
It's like paradise
See your magic eyes
Feel the need in me

The night is yours, the night is mine
I beg you, baby, take your time
Heaven in your eyes
Takes me to the sky
I'm in love with you
