There'll always be a Christmas
A Christmas there'll always be
There'll always be a Christmas
A Christmas for you and for me

Snowy snowflakes silently
Fall from Heaven above
While the folks sing their carols
With those who they love
When the sleighbells ging-a-ling
Blends with churchbells that ring
Then the whole world
Will join in and sing

There'll always be a Christmas
A Christmas there'll always be
There'll always be a Christmas
A Christmas for you and for me

Greet your neighbours
And your friends
Greet them at Christmas time
Let there be peace on earth
And good will t'ward mankind
Sing your Noels loud and clear
So the whole town can hear
It's the happiest time of the year

There'll always be a Christmas
A Christmas there'll always be
There'll always be a Christmas
A Christmas for you - and - for - me...
