If you believe he's coming back tomorrow, oh, then live
like he is coming back today.

With every passing day, redemption's drawing near,
for those with eyes to see and those with ears to hear,
It's easy to believe; the signs are everywhere,
You can see it in the sky, you can feel it in the air.

If you believe he's coming back tomorrow, oh, then live
like he is coming back today, hey,
If you believe he's coming back tomorrow, oh, then live
like he is coming back today, hey.

The lamb that once was slain has come to life again,
As a lion he'll return, and judgement will begin.

If you believe he's coming back tomorrow, oh, then live
like he is coming back today, hey,
If you believe he's coming back tomorrow, oh, then live
like he is coming back today, hey.

If you believe he's coming back tomorrow, oh, then live
like he is coming back today, hey,
If you believe he's coming back tomorrow, oh, then live
like he is coming back today, hey,
If you believe he's coming back tomorrow, oh, then live
like he is coming back today, hey,
If you believe he's coming back tomorrow, oh, then live
like he is coming back today.
