like a flood rushes in without warning the mood, the alcohol, the aggression it fell in light night fall, in the dark infra-red bodies by candle light and I was taken, both taken and thrown but when diamond earrings sparkle in the night

Iâ€™ll hold my breath until it sinks move out of the way when things come crashing a turn for the worse, to turn away from nights cursed with stars and innuendos and lips mutter words that didnâ€™t exist before words of regret, but apologies are for liars

I only wish to have met you sooner so Iâ€™d have known youâ€™d be wasting my time
