The still life
Is all I ever do
There by the window
Quietly killed for you
In this glass house
My insect life
Crawling the walls
Under electric lights

I'll go (into the night)
Into the night
He and I
Into the night

Is this still life
All I'm good for too?
There by the window
Quietly killed for you

And they drive by
Like insects do
They think they don't know me
They hired a car for you

To go (into the night)
Into the night
He and I
Into the night

And this still life
Is all I ever do
There by the window
Quietly killed for you

And this still life
Is all I'm good for too
There by the window
Quietly killed for you

And this still life
Is all I ever do
But it's still

Still life
