“When it Falls Apart”

By Aaron Vehling

Lyrics: 7/28/2003, 8/25/2003

Some folks they try to be a part of it all

They take life and throw it all away

They don't see what's coming to them until it's too late

I hope that they believe in what makes them so great

I'm sorry I can't sleep

It's overtaken me

This blatant hypocrisy

It's overtaken me

Those folks they see themselves in it all

They'll take pain and embrace it to their end

They can't see what's coming to them until they fall

I hope that they believe in what makes them great

I'm sorry I can't sleep

It's overtaken me

This blatant hypocrisy

It's overtaken me

I'm sorry I can't breathe

It's overridden me

This blatant hypocrisy

It's taken over me
