

Autumn Offering "A Great Distance"

Visit "A Great Distance" on MotoLyrics.com distance has bred avidity i'm trapped and cannot fail now i dissolve alone these days have bled me dry if lies were true and lies were new would you still walk alone or would you sharpen words that cut me to the bone?

to drown in my own fears darkness cover me tonight
i'm trapped in your shadows
i'm broken by sorrow

love will be denied to me we're at the ending of our travels her bitter words i bleed the grains of our spent lives the sands are shifting downward killing what i cannot have let me melt away the lies let me take away your soul i can't make you real i watched the stars die in your eyes

i'm left alone
