The walls come crashing inward
We bleed from an open wound
We feed upon the broken
Saturated with fears

As were stricken by years
Stare idle to lifeless oceans
I won't be defined by failures
Of the hypnotized
Fade into desperation
Cast out and ostracized
The rapture so relentless

(Chorus)
From the mouths of serpents
Falling
I watched tomorrow die
All hope is buried in the past

Bleed for the absolution
Desire tears at the will
I can't be forced to empathize with the masses
The son of apathy
I won't be defined by failures
Of the hypnotized
Fade into desperation
Cast out and ostracized
The rapture so relentless

(Chorus)
From the mouths of serpents
Falling
I watched tomorrow die
All hope is buried in the past
So look down the end of a barrel
Pray for an escape
Before the curtain hits the cast

Grieve for the death of creation
While you bleed for the depth of your illusion
