How're you gonna go, my beautiful friend?
It's been a sand cover road from beginning to end
Tonight the light and unlock the the pin
Gone in the night when your eyes do sin

Wasted lives and wasted friends
Does it feel so good till they ride again?
Another one gone, another one gone

Kurt Cobain want a beautiful mind
Lock the door and unscrew the spine
Scrutinize and undermine
Dip your hand in the bowl pick over the side

So much riding on them razor's edge
Pulling it's bone like heaven on ledge
Another one gone, another one gone

Blood on the dust so much it's turning too much
Remember, man that you were bones and blood
Blood on the wall and the curtain and rug
Try to kill the flame with the moonshine jug

You have sponged down, who's gonna take the blame?
Big brother George or Kurt Cobain?
Another one gone, another one gone

How you gonna go on, my beautiful friend?
Life getting longer, I gotta message to send Leap from the air just start over again
How you gonna go, my beautiful friend?
Another one gone, another one gone

Another one gone
Another one gone
Another one gone
