I'm left behind, taken away by the disciples of Baal, my soul incomplete like birth.

The dragon of severity has been layed down on us My life... I cry...I yearn...Flying

I hearby call upon all creatures of the dark to follow me leave your retreal and obey

Dreams of you return cries like the sun trough the clouds in pain of my mind drifts of from the real Listen to my dreams, listen to my prayers and unite with me into a powerfull clan carried by our heart on Your grave I swear by the beasts of liberation that I will revenge your death by murder

The dragon of severity has been layed down on us
My life...I cry... flying
