"Ship To Shore"

collide and break against the day you are nothing more than what came before in parking lots things we forgot well it's one more drink, then i'm heading back headlights sing out welcoming the dawn at morning light bring ship to shore oh, i think we found what we're looking for we watched sun rise for the first time baby you and me are a desperate breed. take your mind off of their prying eyes they don't mean much to me and urgency has never been enough to stop us and headlights sing out welcoming the dawn chart of the stars, decide where we are the cracks in pavement share our simple name lost to desire and born of the same we are chemicals at the feet of love staring in awe
