being with you in all moments openin like a bud in your gaze seeing sense of love in you

It's like a dream in sleep going with you

staying with you

reading you like a story needing you forever

It's like water's thirst

if your eyes wanted me

I would die in your gaze

if your hands were mine

I would die in your hands if you called me

I would never forget that if you stayed with me then I would win all the world but being in love without you being without you and your love staying while sunset in the road

It's impossible without you, O my good one even living without you breathing without any purpose without seeing you forever It's pain and torture for me there is no bird in my love's sky except you there is no name on my silent lips except you my dear, nobody has any place in my heart my lover heart doesn't love anybody except you...
