I stand alone upon the silent plains of time blinded by memories and frail emotions.
Beyond old memories and friends all lost lies the truth.

Shattered hope became my guide in a fight to end my pain
This day full of sadness has joyfully changed into fear

Inside, my heart is crying - I flirt with suicide!
Inside my shell, I'm dying - I just want toÂ...

Strange shapes and void afflicts my soul and cast a shadow to my eye.
A world of fire where smoke seas roll it's time to say goodbye

Black as thunder clouds
To you I gave my heart
In hope to end my pain
To you I gave my heart
In hope to end my pain

When the sun gives no day When stars like skies shall be When heaven and earth pass away
Will you remember me?
