Long since the last man left
Silence, the silence of night
And so the moon gives light
Shining on, both love and hate
And so when no light shines
You won't have to be afraid
No evil, you will be safe
Everything will be all swept away

In nighttime
Nighttime lasting forever
In nighttime
Nighttime when we are gone

When the night comes down I finally see
Man is but a second, a quiet breeze
Nighttime lasting foerver
When we are gone

Roses of the colour of the moon
No light
No shadows of the day
No light
No shadow of evil
The moon will bless you tonight
In darkness
You'll find the light

In nighttime
Nighttime lasting forever
In nighttime
Nighttime when we are gone
