"Lack Of Capacity"

Break down all your stories
They will collapse
when you meet your master
Turn down your false interpretations Birds of love will fly
Break down your master

Conformity, trying to seek to feel Mourning, you can't understand redemption
The past lives today, you'll cry tomorrow

Lack Of Capacity!
Lack Of Capacity!
Lack Of Capacity!
Lack Of Capacity!

Fade away the promises
that gives satisfaction
Sealing that distance between your dying lips
It comes from the heart
We'll find our piece of humanity

The eye of the serpent
Watches his garden
The eye of the beholder
Watches for you
How can we live through?

Lack Of Capacity!
Lack Of Capacity!
Lack Of Capacity!
Lack Of Capacity!

Lack Of Capacity!
