I praise what is unfamiliar
I adore what is unknown
I'd love to see you dance Under the darkest nights...

Falling into the serpents garden with the blessing of God Seeking
lifes true meaning
In the light of darkest nights

Under
moonlit skies we dance
In praise of feeble delights
Oh, my dear beauty
You my angel, my sin,
my everything

The stars will paint their faces
When the two of them becomes one Seeking lifes true meaning
In the light of the brightest suns

Sunrise
A day will grow again
We wonder, in thought we are lost
Dreaming back to tomorrow
And darkest arabian nights...

Under
moonlit skies we dance
In praise of feeble delights
Oh, my dear beauty
You my angel, my sin,
my everything
