joe was a carpenter made a living working wood with the tools in his hand a blue collar man he's got a family wife two kids and a van

he comes home every night with concerns for his family would they always be fine so he prayed to his God for a blessing and a peace that he could not find

send me your angels to watch my children grow show me you love me so i will always know that you cared enough for me to send angels of your own so send those angels
home

so God he spoke down from heaven and said joe now look here is the plan i can honor your request but my hope lies in trusting they will reach for my hand

i can offer you my abundant love and forgiveness but the rest is up to you to be a part of my plan my r ight hand man so just show them your love
