It's a serious hunger
That can lead you around
Like a farmer leads a bull
To the butcher in town
And you never know when
Your time's gonna come
And you can't settle down
And you couldn't stop now
Even if you were able
And you wouldn't settle down
At a simple table
Yeah, whatever makes you happy
Yeah, whatever makes it happen
It's a system of beliefs
That makes you look down
At the whole human race
From a comfortable cloud
And you'll never come down
And you won't come around
Yeah and you'll never come down
Yeah, whatever makes you happy
Yeah, whatever makes it happen
Have you been a slave to sin?
Have you seen what's happening?
Will you ever see enough?
Wash away the history
Have you seen what's happening?
Will it ever be enough?
Yeah, whatever makes you happy
Yeah, whatever makes you happy
Yeah, whatever makes it happen
Have you been a slave to sin?
Have you seen what's happening?
Will you ever see enough?
Wash away the history
Have you seen what's happening?
Will it ever be enough?
