the streetlights are out and the moon is in the sky it's dark all around, a certain light shining on the pavement
i'm waiting.
for the magical moment, your eyes locked on mine and we move in closer, funny feeling in side i'm dreaming, i'm dreaming is it a crime to like you like i do oh is it wrong to see you in my dreams i don't know what i'd do if i can't have you i wish you knew what you do guy like you, you drive me crazy i'm lying in bed listening to your favourite song can't get you off my mind, i just know that we belong together forever

is it a crime to like you like i do

and i stay up every night waiting for the day that you toss rocks at my window with a smile on your face and say

is it a crime to like you like i do
girl like you, you drive me crazy

and we're sitting on the pavement just you and i
