The days go by
Slowly fading from dark to bright
Hungry for a change of scene
But I'll have to wait in this unpleasant sight
Dreaming in a dream

I've been standing in the rain
Waiting for answers to questions unasked
Heartbroken and in pain
As the days pass by in silence
Counting the stars in the sky
I wonder if you can count them too
I hate myself for not trying to try
For someone so beautiful
Someone so beautiful and true

Tired of taking chances
Failing one by one
Figuring out what this is
Pleading for the light of sun
Sitting in the cold and darkness
It's endless
Dreaming in a dream
I've been standing in the rain
Waiting for answers to questions unasked
Heartbroken and in pain
As the days pass by in silence
Counting the stars in the sky
I wonder if you can count them too
I hate myself for not trying to try
For someone so beautiful
Someone so beautiful and true
