It wasn't exactly a good day
There was just too much to think about
Really didn't think it'd be okay
But just to hear your voice...

I like the way you call every night
Even when there's nothing to say
And we're on the phone for two hours
Just to know that you're there makes me feel alright
I like the times we spend together
When you run your fingers through my hair
Sitting on a rooftop watching the stars
I don't think it could ever be better
Knowing that everything will be okay

Thinking of you at night
I feel closer already
It feels so right
But just to hear your voice...

I like the way you call every night
Even when there's nothing to say
And we're on the phone for two hours
Just to know that you're there makes me feel alright
I like the times we spend together
When you run your fingers through my hair
Sitting on a rooftop watching the stars
I don't think it could ever be better
Knowing that everything will be okay

Hearing your ringtone
I pick up the phone
Don't need to tell you what I'm thinking
Cause you already know
That rooftop is where our memories will never fade
The memories that me and you have made

You finish my sentences
Don't even need to try
With you I'm just restless
You're the perfect guy
That rooftop is where our memories will never fade

The memories that me and you have made
