I was born the day I died
At the gates of the grave-yard
Cursed for the things I have done
Hunted, tortured, killed
I was born in the moonlight
With a dagger in the heart
It was that cold winter night
When I lost my fight
My soul is restless
This is my sentence
I damn you for ever
Cold Winter Night

Evil eyes haunted me
I never knew why I died
Black devil in disguise
Took away my life
I was his scapegoat
He played his act of God
A blade cursed my heart
Now I'm wandering through the night

Forgive me father
Forgive, for I have sinned
Damnation is my legacy
I've died before I even lived
Give me a chance for vengeance
Or let me rest in peace
Please, look into my eyes
And listen to my cries

3. PARTED

feat. Irina Kapetanovic

Raven:
Sometimes
When the moon is full and bright
Comes the darkness
And takes my soul.
Desire
For blood - my precious weakness.

My heart would never be pure
If you won't be my cure.

Nightingale:
Tonight
As the light disappears,
Something strange is in my mind,
I feel the beating of the heart.
Desire
To be your mistress, be your blaze of life,
For my heart is poisoned
But I shouldn't let it be your cure.

Together:
Shadow in the moonlight
Don't make the heart die tonight
Dance for me like you never did before
You're my weakness - you're my flame of life.

Raven:
In this eternal night!
Nightingale:
At this cursed hour!
Together:
We are two different sides,
We're condemned to be apart,

Raven:
For I am your poison!
Nightingale:
And I am your cure!
Together:
Never together
For now and for ever!
