Verse 1:

When did it get so hard
To see a way out of this place
We stand here bruised and scarred
Trying so hard
To keep a smile on our face

Verse 2:

We carry all this pain
With us through the night and the day
When we can't think
Not anything else to say
We just turn away

Pre-chorus:

But I know that where we're going
Everything is going our way

Chorus:

When we wake on Sunday Morning
Everything fills with warm sunshine
And the whole world wakes with us
Our love, begins on Sunday Morning

Verse 3:

Now it's all in the past
Everything's perfect
Here at last
Now that our lives are simple and clean
We've finally broken free

Pre-chorus:

And I know that where we're going
Everything is going our way

Chorus:

When we wake on Sunday Morning
Everything fills with warm sunshine
And the whole world wakes with us
Our love, begins on Sunday Morning

Bridge:

And through it all
We kept on fighting, on
Through the things that try to bring us down
They're nowhere near us now
We've made it to the dawn

Chorus:

When we wake on Sunday Morning
Everything fills with warm sunshine
And the whole world wakes with us
Our love, begins on Sunday Morning
It's a brand new morning
