"The End Of Your Time"

once you've felt the anger inside now you're an eagle without wings once you where full of power and strenght now you're feeble and weak once your mind controled your life now you're a brainless marionette once you where one of us
now you're scum

the end of your time has come
you are still alive
but mentally you're dead

rage, wrath, anger was your leading impulse sadness, sorrow, loneliness is what we have shared friendship, the spirit, rebellion our relationship weak mentally chained dead is what you are now

die bastard!
