"Trapped In Insanity"

the river of life has got many tributaries mine is dark and full of maelstreams your system is enigmatic to me never did I perceive the light of reality there's no bridge to attain your side I turn in a circle confused streams of thoughts flow through my brain doesn't I belong to this world

prisoner of my inner world in dimensions you will never see far beyond reality
in the labyrinth of my fortress between slippery walls and deep dark emptiness aimless I wander about there's no way to reach the outside there's no end without beginning the beginning in the first step into nothingness nothingness is everywhere and everywhere is nothing

far beyond reality
