Visit "Wasted" on MotoLyrics.com here I lay wounded in a trench waiting for my last minute I know that there's no way to save me wasted!

as the minutes fade away I let my life pass before my eyes now I know I've wasted my time for nothing wasted!

I still hear the cannons roar for what am I dying?

I die for fat ugly politicians they always knew I'm cannonfodder they let other people die just to realize their morbid plans the pain became to extreme I swear ghostly revenge as I close my eyes forever forever
