(Bob Morris - David Brewer)

Between love and broken hearted that's when my drinkin' started
This double that I'm holdin' seems to have the upper hand
I've spent half my life here drinkin' that's what keeps my mind from thinkin'
So pour me one more daily double me and Jim Beam
love to win.

I didn't mean to be a boozier but it's hell to be a loser
And this bottle that I'm holdin' seems to be my only friend
And before this night is over I'll forget I ever loved her
So pour me one more daily double me and Jim Beam
love to win.

Until closin' time this barroom is my home away from home
I've had so many doubles my mind is almost gone
When she left she sure did break me I let the bottle slowly take me
So pour me one more daily double me and Jim Beam
love to win.

Pour me one more daily double me and Jim Beam love to win...
