Your eyes are not the eyes I should be seen in But right now they're all I want to see Your touch is not the touch I belong to
But tonight you're the one that's reachin' me.

Oh, ain't it easy following the feeling
It started with a smile and hello
We're hardly more than strangers ignoring all the dangers
Following the feeling down a cheatin' road.

--- Instrumental ---

I know tomorrow I'll be sorry
Lovin' you might be too much to pay
But tonight you're in my arms not on my conscience
And I can't think beyond where we lay.

Oh, ain't it easy following the feeling
It started with a smile and hello
We're hardly more than strangers ignoring all the
dangers
Following the feeling down a cheatin' road.
