"Goodbye On Your Mind"

That far away look in your eye
Gets farther as each day goes by
I feel like I'm wasting your time
There ain't nothing but goodbye on your mind.

How long can I keep hanging on
My hope for us is all but gone
I'm so sick and tired of tryin'
There ain't nothing but goodbye on your mind.

Nothing but goodbye on your mind I don't know why
Nothing but goodbye I wanna cry
That leaving look's all over you and I'm just wasting time
There ain't nothing but goodbye on your mind.

There ain't nothing but goodbye on your mind...
