You no longer turn to me when you need turnin' on You've got a lotta love to give but you don't give at home
You don't touch me with your eyes the way you used to do
I could be half blind and see that I'm in the middle of a losing you.

And I'm just one step ahead of a heartache
One jump in front of the blues
And I'm way behind on your sweet love
And I'm right in the middle of losing you.

--- Instrumental ---

Every time I pull you close you just pull away Holding on to someone who's gone gets harder everyday
You say everything's all right I know that that's not true Deep inside I know that I'm in the middle of a losing you.

And I'm just one step ahead of a heartache
One jump in front of the blues
And I'm way behind on your sweet love
And I'm right in the middle of losing you.

I'm just one step ahead of a heartache
One jump in front of the blues
And I'm way behind on your sweet love
And I'm right in the middle of losing you...
