(Richard Hill - Moe Bandy)

It was only liquor emotion
I drank every word that I said
And it was only liquor emotion
I was talkin' out of my head.

I told her that I'd always love her
That I'd always been so alone
But there's one thing that I never told her
About a good woman that I've got at home.

And it was only liquor emotion
I drank every word that I said
And it was only liquor emotion
I was talkin' out of my head.

--- Instrumental ---

A fool lets the booze do his talkin'
A man lets his heart run his life
I let the booze do my talkin'
Almost lost a good family and a wife.

And it was only liquor emotion
I drank every word that I said
And it was only liquor emotion
I was talkin' out of my head...
