(Bobby P. Barker)

Sometimes when I'm drinkin' and I've had two or three I get a little outta line when I meet something cute and sweet
That old devil gets in me and he says go on and cheat
But I run on home to my woman who loves the devil out of me.

My woman loves the devil out of me
She delivers me from evil I swear she's got wings
She's just like an angel she's all I'll ever need
My woman loves the devil out of me.

--- Instrumental ---

My woman knows I love her and I'm not the cheatin' kind
But mixing drinks with sweet young things can make you change your mind
But it's that old devil talkin' and temptin' me to cheat
So I run on home to my woman who loves the devil out of me.

My woman loves the devil out of me
She delivers me from evil I swear she's got wings
She's just like an angel she's all I'll ever need
My woman loves the devil out of me...
