Talk about your good times Lord I've had me some Laughter comes easy to a man when he's young
But I've growed too far on this ole whiskey dream
And nobody's waiting for me.

Nobody's waiting for me to come home
Nobody's waiting for me
I'm just somebody nobody needs
And nobody's waiting for me.

I used those who loved me and I've spent all my friends
Never thinking beginnings would come to an end
Now I'm not a part of anyone's dream
And nobody's waiting for me.

Nobody's waiting for me to come home
Nobody's waiting for me
I'm just somebody nobody needs
And nobody's waiting for me.

And nobody's waiting for me...
