(Jim Mundy - Peggy White)

From barroom fights to Sunday school from whiskey to lemonade
Red porch lights and breaking rules and picnics in the shade
From lipsticks stains and headache pains to Saturday night TV
She took out the outlaw in me.

And I love it, yeah, I love it
And sometimes I can't get enough of it
When she turns out the lights and pulls down the shades
She loves the outlaw out of me.

--- Instrumental ---

From lukewarm beer and hard boiled eggs to chicken and chocolate pie
Angel cakes to charcoal steaks and no more lying eyes
From swingin' doors hardwood floors to a glass of cold ice tea
She took out the outlaw in me.

And I love it, yeah, I love it
And sometimes I can't get enough of it
When she turns out the lights and pulls down the
shades
She loves the outlaw out of me.

She loves the outlaw out of me...
