(Dan Mitchell)

I wish someone else had her mem'ry
She's gone and I'm not over her yet
Oh, how I've tried to get her out of my mind
But she's playin' hard to forget.

Her fingers are touchin' me gently
I feel her lips soft and wet
She's lovin' me each night in my dreams
She's playin' hard to forget.

She swore she'd always be with me
And I bless the day that we met
She made me believe that she'd never leave
Now she's playin' hard to forget.

Her fingers are touchin' me gently
I feel her lips soft and wet
She's lovin' me each night in my dreams
She's playin' hard to forget.

She's playin' hard to forget...
